signs of spring

Have you noticed? Yes, we just had some snow flurries today, and it's still pretty cold, but if you look closely you can find signs of spring. There are buds on the trees, bulbs sprouting through the snow and dirt and the days are stretching out a little bit longer. There are Cadbury eggs in the grocery store, quilters are making heart and bunny quilts and I have a touch of Spring fever.

Okay, maybe a lot of Spring fever. I even find myself wanting to clean out closets and drawers. I'll spend 20 minutes culling fabrics, sorting and rearranging colors, then decide I'd rather be sewing. At the same time I'm amazed at how much I can get done in 20 minutes. I just need to do that more often. Any suggestions on how to keep the motivation up and not get distracted by pretty fabric?

Thank you to Amber Cox who did our demo for Fat Quarter roll warmers at our last meeting, to Jodie Banks who did our Show and Share, and for all of you for participating in our Zoom meetings. I hope to see many of you at our service day. Vaccines or not, masking up will be the style of the day!

BE A PIECE MAKER,

Lisa Johnson

Habitat for Humanity

This year, we are starting a partnership with Habitat for Humanity of Utah County. This organization builds, renovates, and repairs homes in Utah County for those in need. With help from volunteers, donors, and supporters, they build homes, communities and hope. In 2021 they are building 3 new homes for families. Our guild will contribute a finished quilt at the ribbon cutting ceremony of each new home. Every new home needs a quilt! If you would like to help with this project, email Sarah.Yorgason@gmail.com

Charity quilt of the month: Flannel Four Patch

Four patches are one of the easiest units to create! This larger block size works great for juvenile novelty fabrics and sews together quickly.

Instructions for a quilt measuring 36x42

For the four patches:

cut scraps into 84 3 ½ inch squares

For the alternating blocks:

cut 21 6 ½ inch squares. You can use a piece as small as 26 inches by WOF to have enough to make them all the same.

Sew the smaller squares into pairs, sew the pairs into 4 patches. This is a great time to practice nesting the seams together or spinning the seam allowance to lay flat. The photo shows a larger quilt that uses more patches. I usually make a quilt the size of the backing I have available.

A simple quilt can also be made with any size square, here are two made with 6 ½ flannel squares. One with random coordinating squares and one with one constant fabric alternating with random.

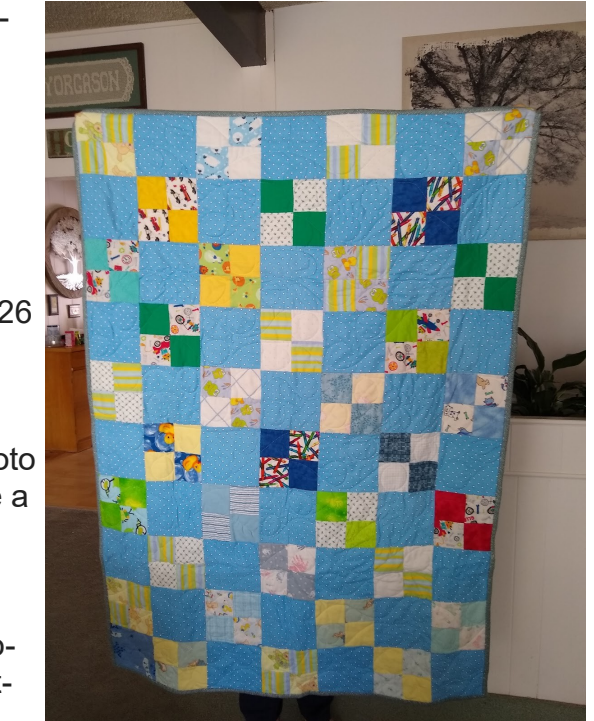

How you can help:

You can contribute your already cut flannel squares to be combined with others already donated

You can contribute your flannel scraps and I will cut them to size

You can pick up a bag of coordinating squares ready for you to sew into a quilt top

You can pick up a quilt top, batting and backing and quilt as desired

Bonus! I have 5 kits from last month's charity pattern ready to sew if you wish to try it out

2021 Specialty Teacher Karin Crawford

(Karin's class will be offered April 20, 2021 dependent on current covid conditions and restrictions.) Held at Elise Larsen's home in Orem for those registered. We have two additional openings to attend Karin's class. If you wish to learn from this amazing quilter, please contact Elise Larsen at: elise.larsen@comcast.net. The cost of the class is $35.00.

The class will start in the morning at 9:00 and end in the afternoon at 4:00 with an hour break for potluck lunch at 12:00. The main dish will be provided. You must pay at the time of sign up to be enrolled in the class. Cost is $35.00. Please bring a check or the exact cash amount. Checks should be made out to UVQG. Karin is a gifted quilter with many innovative techniques to teach us. She is also a gifted teacher. After she taught at quilt festival I heard so many good comments about her class. I have also been present in one of her classes and learned a lot. We are grateful to have her and learn from her.

FABRIC BREAD WARMER

PATTERN BY TRIED AND TRUE PATTERNS

Supplies needed:

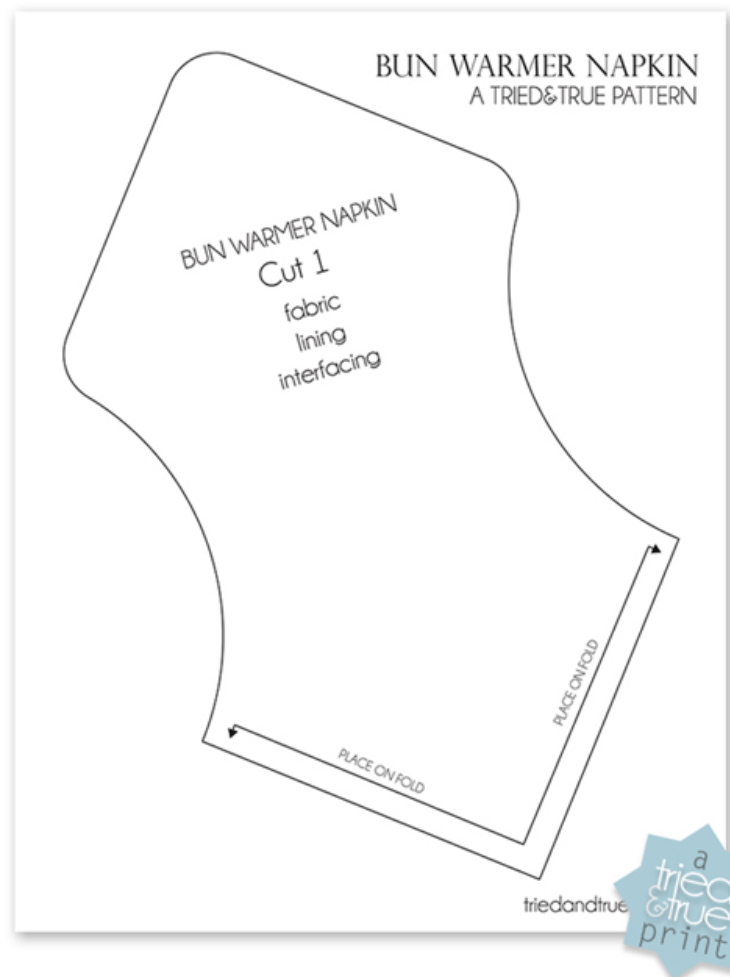

½ yard main fabric

½ yard coordination fabric

Insul-bright (or warm & natural batting)

Coordination thread for top stitching

Step One. Assemble supplies

Enlarge to desired size

Step Two. Fold the fabric in half and then in half again (quartered). Place the pattern into the corner and cut.

Step Three. Repeat with both the lining and the Insul-bright/warm (or natural batting material).

Step Four. Layer the fabric and lining with their right sides facing each other. Place the Insul-bright on the back of the lining and sew around the edge with a 1/4" seam allowance. Make sure to leave a small opening to flip right side out.

Step Five. Using that small opening I just mentioned, turn right side out and press with iron to make nice sharp edges. Sew tightly around the edges, making sure to close up that small opening you used to turn right side out.

February Show & Tell

Lori Stevens

I started this at quilt fest 2019 for my daughter in law (pictured here). I thought it turned out pretty cute. I purchased the kit at Keepsake Quilting.

Sandy Lai

Made from Japanese panels that we acquired when we bought some items from an older gentleman from Logan that lived in Japan during the 70's. I added some sashing and quilted it with a water theme. My grandsons have been wanting new quilts, so this is going to one of them, his brother/twin is using some other Japanese fabrics that were hand woven and is putting together his quilt.

Barb Murdock

I started these at quilt fest 2014 in a class taught by Crystal North. Then I decided to make ten of them. Yup, I got carried away. Just got all ten back from the quilter, need to put the bindings on plus some crystals. I am making them in 4 different colors, red, green, purple and pink. They are gifts for this coming Christmas.

Karin Crawford

Crazy Quilt made from silks and velvets. Each month of the year has embroidered family names and so this quilt is also a Family Tree. Pattern by Peacemakers. Quilted by Kim Peterson. This quilt took over 14 years... working off and on.

Elaine Taylor

Here is a quilt top I just finished. It is made from batiks. After that I am going to start on a couple of baby quilts for newborns in my neighborhood.

Deonn Stott

Quilt is called Purdy Bird.

For sale, nearly new Juki DX-3000QVP

$2500.00. Multiple decorative stitches and fonts.

Many different presser feet and accessories.

Wide sewing table

2021 Fall Retreat

Zermatt Hotel, Midway, Utah—November 3-6, 2021

“Happy 20th Anniversary” UVQG “Through the Years”

It is that time again quilters, time to register for the fall retreat at the Zermatt in Midway. We are hoping this year that you will convince your friends or family members to come and join us. We love to meet new quilters!

If you would like to attend, you need to fill out the registration form and return it to Trish Derrick with a $75 Non-Refundable deposit. Make check payable to UVQG. Registration will begin April 1, 2021 and is on a first come, first serve basis for all current members. The cost that you are paying includes three nights lodging, and three lunches and dinners on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. There are microwaves and small fridges in each room, in addition to an onsite bakery and restaurant.

The cost of the retreat also includes set-up fees, extra power boxes, small gifts for all, gratuities, etc. Some have asked if they stayed or ate elsewhere would the price be any different. Sorry, same price for everyone.

You are welcome to come Tuesday afternoon and get an early start on your sewing. You will be responsible for Tuesday night's hotel stay, at the same rate we are being charged, $119.00 plus tax. Last year about half of those who registered came early.

The retreat officially starts Wednesday morning at 10 am and ends at 2 pm on Saturday. If you would like to stay and additional night or two, the same rate will apply. We will make reservations for arrival dates, but if you choose to stay later, you will need to let the hotel know when you check in.

Before you register, make sure that your membership is up to date, as only current members can register. Your membership must stay current, throughout the retreat. You can mail your membership dues with your registration but make out a separate check for registration along with the membership form. The cost of the retreat is on the registration form.

Since the Zermatt does not have enough two queen bedrooms for all of us, if two to a room, are you willing to you share a king bed? If so, please mark it on the registration form. This will help so that all of us can stay in the main hotel.

We are hoping that all will want to participate in the secret sister even this year. If you want to, please fill out the form for secret sisters. We want to have demos on Thursday and Friday afternoons, but we are in need of some quilters who would like to share their knowledge with us. These demos will last approximately 20 minutes each. I know a lot of you just prefer to sew on your own projects or take a rest etc. No one needs to sign up for the demos, just come if you want to.

A reminder, no babies or small children. Everyone who attends must pay the registration fee. The balance for your retreat is due by August 13, 2021. If you have questions, please call, text, or email me.
