President's Message

Can you believe that summer is almost over? I think time is flying faster than I can keep up with my sewing goals and finishes. Though I am a "summer girl", Fall is an exciting season in its own right. I have always thought of fall for new beginnings- new school clothes, new classes, new lessons.

September is JellyRoll Month. National Sew a Jelly Roll Day is the third Saturday of September. Have you got your pattern and jellyroll ready for sewing?

As we look forward to finishing out fall and our quilting projects, may you think of volunteering on the board for next year. Many hands make it happen, and I have loved being on the board this year working alongside each one of you.

Happy Sewing, Machelle

UVQG Fall Retreat

Zermatt Resort Nov. 12 – 15, 2025

It is nice to finally get some rain and see a slight change in the season. Fall Retreat is coming quickly and we are working diligently to make this a fun Retreat for each of you. You might be wondering about Secret Sisters. I miscommunicated to you the wrong dates to expect information but it is coming. Please respond as quickly as you can. Thanks for your understanding and patience.

I sent out a short survey, one question, to Retreat attendees for information about their roommate(s). If you have not answered it please do so. It is from marilynphamblen@gmail.com.

Lisa Johnson still needs your input on quilts that you or your group has donated. Please give her as much information as possible, including any pictures.

We will be having a small service project at the retreat. Sarah is working on that and will have everything ready for us. Thank you Sarah.

Thanks for everything you do for each other, the community, and the world with your kindness.

Marilyn

The Guild Library recently received a generous donation of books. We are putting them into circulation for you to enjoy. Also, a request for books on wool applique and embroidery was made. We have purchased a few new books on these subjects.

Come and see the NEW ARRIVALS at our next meeting!
