President's Message by Elise Larsen UVQG President

Inside this issue:

Some reminders:

July Fair at Noah's in Pleasant Grove, carpool please, July 17, 2019 we begin at 9:30.

Bring a baked item or fruit already cut up for the Bake sale. You don't need to have signed up previously.

Classes are FREE and begin at 10:00, every hour.

Our Zermatt Retreat money is now due.

We are streamlining announcements at our guild meetings. Bring a small paper flier for each chair, about 100.

Bonnie Miles recently taught us about LIFE in regards to quilts. L = locate, I = identify, F = finish, E = enjoy. If we do these things after we go searching in our closet(s) we will have plenty to work on and can come up with some amazing quilts. I want to offer a big thank you to our program chairs this year, Crystal North and Jacque Thompson. I am learning a lot from our Tool Time, Organizational Tips, and our presenters. Each month I am also learning about color and amazing quilts in all sizes.

I am especially grateful to our board who serves all of you with respect, love, and a desire to make things work well for our guild. You are all great ladies I have come to admire a lot.

So far this year we have made over 150 quilts for the baby your baby program! Also, an Eagle Scout applicant approached us for help with the smaller blankets for babies born still. He reports our guild gave him approximately 90 sets of blankets, and he has collected over 800 sets from all over the United States. Wow!

Keep sewing and see you at the July Fair! And stay safe this summer.

July Quilt Fair

July 17

Noah's Reception Center, Lindon

Plan to join us at beautiful Noah's Reception Center in Lindon on July 17, from 9:30am to 3pm.

We are getting so excited for the July Fair! Circle Wednesday July 17th on your calendar. Doors open at 9:30 and the last classes end at 3:00. It will be held again at Noah's Event Center. The address is 1976 W. 700 No. Lindon. Our classes start at 10:00. The schedule is full of great classes and teachers. Next months Patchwords will have the list. Warning – It's going to be hard to choose!

Plan on spending plenty of time shopping with the vendors. We will have even more than last year.

Our wonderful garage sale committee is working hard and waiting for more of your donations. You can bring them to our UVQG June meeting. If you can't come to the meeting, please bring them that day.

There is still plenty of time for you or your quilting groups to put together something for the silent auction. We love seeing how creative you are. Thanks in advance for your generosity in supporting the auction in any way.

As always, there will be a yummy bake sale. Please bring your baked goods to the kitchen. As we all know, quilters are the best cooks!

We will have several food trucks there for lunch.

Please CARPOOL! We learned last year that there isn't a lot of parking.

I can't think of a better way to the day than with my quilty friends doing quilty things.

Hope to see you (and your friends) there!

Library Notes - New Books by Jodie Banks

We have two new books in the library. They are:

Fresh Cut by Sue Spargo (find this in Fabrics)

Vintage Patchwork by Pam Buda (find this in Patchwork)

Springville Quilt Show
CALLING ALL QUILTERS!

There will be just one evening of trunk shows this year in conjunction with the Springville Quilt Show. This will be held Wednesday, July 31st from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. at the Springville Museum of Art. There will be 3 presenters, and we are in need of MANY volunteers to help that evening to move and hold quilts. If you can help for even one trunk show (1/2 hour), then you can enjoy the other trunk shows from the audience. Or if you work with a youth group that needs service hours, we would love to involve them. Please contact Maureen Tuttle, 801-592-1920, queentut1@comcast.net.

We also need volunteers to help hang the quilts (no climbing on ladders and the museum provides a pizza lunch) July 22nd from 9am to 3pm or any part of that day you can help, and to take down quilts on Sept. 23rd from approx.. 10am to 12pm. Again, please contact Maureen if you are willing to help. The Opening Reception and Awards will be Saturday, July 27th from 11am to 12pm, and everyone is invited, no volunteers needed this day.

Quilting friends, many hands make light work, and this amazing quilt show needs many hands to make it happen. PLEASE do your part as a guild member if you are able. We need YOU!

Last but not least, keep finishing up your quilts to enter into the show. The entry forms are now available on the Springville Museum of Art website (smofa.org) and you can pay online or pay when you bring your quilt to the museum on July 19th or 20th from 10 am – 5 pm. It's going to be a beautiful show thanks to you amazing quilters!

On Monday, June 24, Angela Palmer passed away due to a fatal car accident. Her husband Jeff had taken her for ice cream and after stopping to turn on highway 6 in Spanish Fork was hit at highway speed by an individual having a medical problem. Angela was killed on impact and her husband survived after spending over a week at the Utah Valley ICU unit.

Many of you may ask who was Angela. Some may remember her because she assisted Jill Cox with door prizes during the UQG Festival in 2015 and 2016. Angela was so generous with every facet of her life. She always thought of others and worked on making sure that they were happy. She loved to quilt - not only for herself, but mostly for others. She enjoyed making charity quilts and supporting organizations like Quilts of Valor and the Children's Justice Center. Angela was an avid horse lover and friend to so many.

At this time we would like to send our prayers to her husband Jeff and to her 5 children. Her spunky personality will be missed. She always believed in the philosophy in leaving someone better off than

Sew Much Hope

By Kim McCloskey

As with many of you, I first became aware of the charity organization Sew Much Hope when I saw their booth at the Utah Quilting and Sewing Marketplace. I had walked up to the booth simply to say hi to my friend Charon Mauritsen, who was working the booth as a member of the board of directors, but I walked away so inspired by the poignant stories that I knew I needed to do something to help. Charon (pronounced "Sharon") told me about women in Guatemala, Zambia, and Haiti who had been exploited and abused, living in hopeless conditions, who found hope again after being provided with sewing machines, lessons and materials. These machines gave them the independence they needed to provide for themselves and rise above the deplorable conditions around them.

According to their website, the mission of Sew Much Hope is to provide "sewing machines to refugees in the US and others in need abroad to foster self-reliance and help end generational poverty". They work in partnership with other organizations to get the machines to those who need them most.

It all began with a man named Gino Rich who was a truck driver for 30 years. As he travelled, he would go to thrift stores, buy old sewing machines, add hand-cranks, and then find someone to give them to. Over the years he became so passionate about the work that he began to inspire those he came in contact with. In fact, Charon told me that "everyone who has gotten involved (with Sew Much Hope) is because of Gino."

My first introduction to him was when I called the number on the website to find a place to take the two machines I wanted to donate. Gino was instantly engaging and I could hear the passion in his voice for this work. Among many other moving stories he said,

"the machines that go to Africa save lives, the machines that go to South America change lives, and the machines that are given to refugees here touch lives."

There are people and businesses all over who are catching his vision. A lawyer in Salt Lake named Ted got so inspired that he got involved and then encouraged Gina and Moana of UQSM to get involved. When I went to drop off my machines at the Blend-Tec headquarters in Orem I was met by the owner himself, Tom Dickson (who you may know from the Will it Blend? ads), who helped get them out the car to take them up to a workshop they have on site to help refurbish the machines. He had also caught Gino's vision and was excited to be involved.

If you would like to become involved with this important work, here are 5 immediate needs:

1. More repairmen are needed to refurbish the donated machines. Gino and Charon both told me that they are looking for retired senior citizens who are willing to tinker with machines. As Gino said, "tell them they can golf in heaven, but right now there is work to be done and lives to be saved." If you know of someone who might enjoy helping out, please email Gino at sewmuchhope101@gmail.com or call (801) 706-0301.
2. Donate a working sewing machine. Durable machines from the 1940's-1960's will receive hand cranks or treadles to be used in areas without reliable electricity. Electric machines are used for refugees and in schools, orphanages, and community centers with reliable electricity.
3. Donate money to help buy fabric, machine parts and equipment such as chairs for sewing centers.
4. Women who have sewing and teaching skills and who can afford to pay for their own travel are needed to go train women to use the sewing machines.
5. There is a group going to Rwanda who needs fabric, 9-10 sewing machines (there is reliable electricity in this area), 2 instructors, and money to purchase 20 chairs.

This may be our chance to change a life. If you would like to find out more go to <http://sewmuchhope.org/>.

“You have to love a nation that celebrates its independence every July 4th, not with a parade of guns, tanks, and soldiers who file by the White House in a show of strength and muscle, but with family picnics where kids throw Frisbees, the potato salad gets iffy, and the flies die from happiness. You may think you have overeaten, but it is patriotism.” – Erma Bombeck
