

2019 UVQG Fall Retreat, Zermatt Hotel, Midway, Utah

“A Christmas in Stitches”

November 6-9, 2019

It is that time again quilters, time to register for the fall retreat at the Zermatt in Midway. If you would like to attend, you need to fill out the registration form and return it to Caisa Hess with a $75.00 nonrefundable deposit as soon as possible. Registration is on a first come, first serve basis for all current members. Last year we filled up almost immediately. We have space for 120 quilters.

The cost that you are paying includes three nights lodging, and three lunches and dinners on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. There are microwaves and small fridges in each room, in addition to the onsite bakery and the restaurant. The cost of the retreat also includes set-up fees, extra power boxes, small gifts for all, gratuities, etc. Some have asked if they stayed or ate elsewhere would the price be any different. Sorry, same price for everyone.

You are welcome to come Tuesday afternoon and get an early start on your sewing. You will be responsible for Tuesday night's hotel stay, at the same rate we are being charged, $119.00 plus tax. Last year about half of those who registered came early. The retreat officially starts Wednesday morning at 10 am and ends at 2 pm on Saturday. If you would like to stay an additional night or two, the same rate will apply. We will make reservations for arrival dates, but if you choose to stay later, you will need to let the hotel know when you check in.

Before you register, make sure that your membership is up to date, as only current members can register. Your membership must stay current, clear through the retreat.

The cost of the retreat is on the registration form. Since the Zermatt does not have enough two-bed rooms for all of us, please consider sharing a king bed if possible, so that we can all be in the main hotel.

See last month's memo about the new secret sister event. We are hoping that everyone will participate. Also, the Zermatt sold the rolling chairs, so we will be using their new folding, cushioned chairs, which were in the dining area last year. You may want to consider bringing an extra cushion for your chair.

Our theme is all about Christmas and sharing, and we have already had some of our members volunteer to make and donate Christmas gifts for everyone. I was so excited when our quilters said they wanted to do this for us. Nancy Roberts is working on a game for Thursday night and she needs to know how many will be participating.

I am wondering how many quilters want to have the demos in the afternoon. I know a lot of you just prefer to sew on your own projects or go to the quilt store or take a rest, etc. If you enjoy the demos, please let us know and if you would be willing to do a demo for us.

A reminder, no babies or small children. Everyone who attends must pay the registration fee.

The balance of your retreat fee is due by July 17, 2019.

If you have any questions, please call or email me.
