President's Message by Lisa Johnson

How are all of my quilting friends? I hope this newsletter finds you well and stitching!! If not then I hope this newsletter helps to get you to that point. What a wonderful group we had at our last meeting. Weren't the teachers fabulous!?! I love when I go away from our meetings with new knowledge and more motivation.

Are you ready to start a new project? Declutter your sewing studio? Make a gift for someone? Or just sew a little and enjoy the process. I remember a time in my life when I was really busy with non-sewing related things and had been away from my sewing machine for many days. I remember the feeling of relief and happiness when I sat down and sewed. The sound of the machine was relaxing, the motion of sending fabric through a moving needle was exciting and I heaved a huge sigh of relief to be back with my best friend "Betsy" (my Pfaff)

May we all have many sewing days ahead of us.

June's Program

Paula McKinlay. Paula has been designing, creating, knitting, stitching and sewing for many years...actually starting as a young girl creating for her Betsy Wetsy, Barbie and Ken, and her troll dolls. Paula then moved on to designing clothes for herself. She comes from a long line of sewists, and thinks it appropriate that there is a quilt shop nestled among the buildings of her ancestors farm, Gardner's Village.

Thirty-something years later she started piecing, designing, and teaching quilt patterns. She has traveled far and wide chasing down the best quilt destination spots, and learned from quilters from around the world.

Come listen to her tell the rest of her story; how all her addictions involve needles, and how she takes back stolen moments.

You can check out her instagram @pauladmckinlay.

Service Projects

Summer Breeze Mystery Quilt

Have you ever done a mystery quilt? It can be an exciting way to spark creativity and get your sewing juices flowing.

While decluttering my sewing space in January, I found packets of instructions for a mystery quilt I ran in 2008!. Rather than recycle the papers, I packaged them up with donated fabric to make charity quilts. This will be a fun, simple project for summer. Invite your friends to play along! It is a basic pattern that would be good for a beginner. If you have grandchildren or neighborhood kids that want a quilting lesson, this would be perfect!

The mystery will make a small, pieced quilt measuring 40" x 48" including borders. It will be quick to cut using only two fabrics

Fabric and instructions provided. I will have kits at the June guild meeting.

Bring your completed quilt top to the September meeting to earn a reward.

Email sarah at sarah.yorgason@gmail.com to save your spot.

Service update

May sure flew by! I have had many things turned in and are ready to deliver, but I did not make any deliveries last month. June will be just as busy for me, but I promise I will make some deliveries before August, if only to save on storage space. I appreciate so much the Many Hands that move our projects forward.

Quilter's Corner

This is my new iron. I LOVE it. Just wanted to share with you a great product. This is a Panasonic Cordless Iron. It has a large water tank you can see through.

It says hot for a long, long, time. I have sewn many times and stood up only to be surprised that it was still hot and ready to go!

Of course the cordless feature is remarkable since I don't have a cord getting in the way.

Plus it puts out plenty of steam when you want it. AND it does NOT leak!

I am not affiliated with this product in anyway.

Star Block 1

This is the block that you will be doing this month. It is Rotary Cut and pieced. Make 2. The directions are on the following pages.

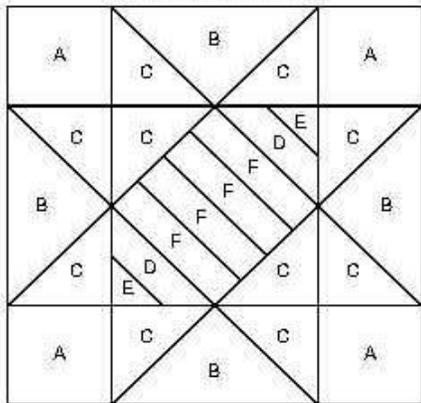

Border Block

I am also including the file for the border blocks so that you may begin to make them. There are 32 blocks. An alternative to doing so many blocks is to do plain blocks in-between. That way you only have to do 16 star blocks. Directions on the following pages.
