July Patchwords Lost in Cyberspace

Just before Kim McCloskey finished prepping this month's newsletter for publication, most of the information disappeared from view. Unfortunately data has not been recovered and Kim left on vacation. So we are sending a very abbreviated version (only 3 pages) with the main details for this month.

You can also find this information, along with more photos, on our website. www.uvqg.org

Springville Quilt Show by Karin Crawford

Announcing the 45th Annual Utah Quilt Show at the Springville Museum of Art.

The show begins on July 28 and ends September 22, 2018.

—VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

If you are willing and able to help hang quilts for the show, please contact Karin Crawford.

Monday morning, July 23rd, at the Springville Museum. You do NOT climb ladders. You do use arm strength to hold quilts on the walls using sticks.

Bring your entries: Friday, July 20 from 10 to 4 and Saturday, July 21 from 10 to 4. You may enter up to 2 quilts. Entry fee is $16.00 per quilt.

Trunk Shows: Wednesday, August 22, 6:30 to 8:30 pm and Thursday, August 23, 12:30 to 3:00pm

Please get your quilts ready to show! All the quilts from last year's HUE Challenge would be great. Or any other you would like to show. Remember, the judging will be for hanging quilts so a special sleeve is needed (specified by the SMOA). Instructions and online entry forms are available at: www.smofa.org/45th-quilt-show

This form needs to be filled out online before bringing your quilt to the museum. This year's judges are Cody Mazuran, Sharon Wright & Florence Evans.

Any questions, contact Karin Crawford 801-616-9229

Opening Reception is Sat, July 28th, 11:00 am

UVQG July Fair is Almost Here

July Quilt Fair is getting closer!! Make sure to invite your friends and family members to join us!
We are so excited to be able to use this beautiful venue. (Yes, it has air conditioning!)

Wednesday, July 18th from 9:30am to 3pm @ NOAH's Event Venue

The address is: 1976 West 700 North, Lindon

Exit I-15 Pleasant Grove Blvd going east. Take first right which is 700 N. NOAH's will be on left.

Our famous garage sale is at the top of the list of places to be. Bring any items that you no longer want or need. An unfinished project that you no longer have interest in can be an absolute treasure for someone looking for an item to work on and to love. Besides sharing with our quilting friends, we can create room for more fabric or projects for ourselves. {Helena Miskin 435.313.4907, TraceCe Woods}

Bring your donations for our silent auction, and plan on bidding for your favorite items. {Carol Hunt 435.654.3754}

We are excited to have room for our quilt show this year. More info on the next page, which also has a list of the many wonderful classes available for FREE.

It's a known fact that quilters are also great cooks! We look forward to purchasing fantastic treats at our bake sale. The quality of items available for sale is always tremendous. Plan on bringing your favorite bake sale items to share with everyone. (Please package them ready to sell.) {Karin Crawford 801.616.3754}

We have made arrangements with two food trucks who both offer delicious lunch selections.

The Mouse Trap specializes in artisan grilled cheese sandwiches, while Jurassic Street Tacos sells tacos.

There will be many local vendors there with all of the latest fabrics and gadgets that we just have to have! It's always fun to see the newest projects and items that our local vendors have to offer. We are fortunate to have a great variety of quilting shops in our area that provide us with quality products.

Please join us for this fun annual event. Bring your friends to our July Quilt Fair and introduce them to the quilting world that we all love. You don't have to be a member of the Guild in order to attend. Admission is FREE and open to the public. We can't think of anything better than spending time with our friends, while seeing beautiful quilts, attending classes, and shopping!
