President's Message by RevaBeth Russell UVQG President

Dear Quilters,

We are sorry that there will be no meeting this April and it is very doubtful we will have a meeting even in June. Karin Crawford's trunk show will be rescheduled. This may be the easiest term as president in the history of the Guild.

There is so much that could be said about these last few weeks. There has been great kindness and love shown. There has been an abundance of stupidity. Many are able to hunker down at home and sew. Some are on the front lines of helping and serving. Wherever you are I am so grateful you are in my life. Please stay there. Please stay healthy. There are many online videos and patterns to jumpstart creativity.

There are all the IQ quilts to finish as well, even if our Quilt Fest must be canceled. One of our meetings might just have to be all Show and Tell so we can see what everyone has been doing. Many of us have laughed that we have enough projects to last for 10 years. Let's just make sure we have those 10 years to do it.

Check in with Facebook, call or text your friends. (Notice this month we have the membership information.)

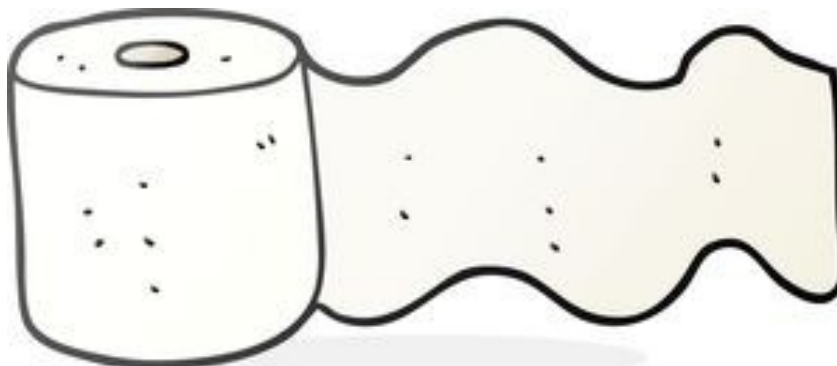

I went grocery shopping just as the toilet paper run (runs) happened. As I noticed all the empty shelves, I had a gut reaction to buy some. I did not, because I knew I had 12 rolls at home which will last long enough in my house. Then I read this article and it was fascinating to learn about this kind of panic. You might also learn from it.

There is biology in our behavior. # July Fair

Since we don't know how things will be in a few months just hang tight but keep in mind:

-The garage sale will not happen unless someone steps up at the last minute and there are 10 to 15 committed, signed in blood, women who will be there to sell the items.

-If you are creating something awesome maybe do something for the silent auction. If we don't use it this year we can next year or at the September Quilt Fest.

-Think about a class you could teach. A 45 minute demonstration/discussion would be great. I would love to see things taught in the past that I couldn't attend or have forgotten.

Please contact Lacey Peterson to volunteer. You can email her at:

Fall retreat

As of today, the November retreat at the Zermatt is still a go. Of course, we never know what will happen from day to day. But send in your application and plan on attending with the rest of us. If the retreat is not held, everyone will get all of their money back. We need something positive to look forward too. The application forms were in last month's Patchwords and are also on the website. Any questions, please email me, Barb Murdock heberbarb@gmail.com

UVQG Mission Statement

“The Utah Valley Quilt Guild was established in 1982 to promote the Art of Quilting through educational and social means and to provide service.”

*****

We are always striving to improve and make the guild the best it can be, so if you have any comments or suggestions, please feel free to contact any member of the board
